

The 2012 Nero is a blend of two of the darkest grapes to be found in Puglia: Negroamaro and Cabernet Sauvignon (aged in barrique for 18 months and in large casks for an additional year). This is a delicious and impressive wine that boasts super rich and dark concentration backed by soft tannins and supple extraction. The wine is opulent and generous with enduring tones of sweet spice and blackberry fruit. Nero is an absolute pleasure to drink.

Monica Lerner

Issue 226 The Wine Advocate

